

DONG Hongjun

Partner, Attorney at Law

Mr. Dong graduated from China University of Political Science and Law, and obtained the Lawyer License (License No.: 13101200410315569) in 2004.

Before being a member of Leezhao Law Office, Mr. Dong has worked in a financial regulatory administration, and served in two other law firms which focus on foreign concerned legal affairs. As the backbone in both business operation and management, Mr. Dong participates in the business operation of many key clients as well as management of electronic operation system and business quality management system etc..

The scope of Mr. DONG's legal practice covers corporate compliance, dispute settlement, foreign investment, company business, M&A etc. Mr. Dong has provided legal services for many multinational enterprises and foreign invested enterprises with background of Japan, Europe and the USA.

The typical cases of Mr. Dong are as follows: offering legal services for a Fortune Global 500 company (Japanese company) to handle a complicated litigation case with a Shanghai group corporation involving arbitration, litigation and enforcement; providing legal services for a Fortune Global 500 company (Germany company) to handle complicated litigation cases with a Tianjin real estate company; investigating violations of senior executives and business departments' executives in a Fortune Global 500 company (Japanese company), including dealing with criminal procedures; dealing with the violations of the Chinese marketing team and the overall crisis management for an Australian company; offering legal services for a multinational company's project with total investment amount of approximately two billion US dollars in China; providing legal services for a foreign invested logistics company on its operation system, marketing system and labor management system inside China.

Mr. Dong endeavors in accumulating the academic theory and practical experience, and is the main author in writing several books and reports such as the Legal Manual on Business Disputes of the Japanese Invested Enterprises in China, the Report of Investigation on Technology Transfer, the Investigation on Twenty-Two Sectors of the Foreign Invested Service Industry, and the Investigation Report on Administrative Procedures Relating to Intellectual Property Rights. More than 50 of his articles and case studies have been published on different publications.

In 2007, Mr. Dong was conferred Excellent Youth Lawyer in Jing'an District of Shanghai.

Mr. Dong's working languages are Mandarin.