

SHEN Weiliang

Partner / Attorney at Law.

Mr. Shen graduated from Shanghai International Studies University.

Mr. Shen has provided legal services to medium and large Japanese-funded enterprises, including a considerable portion of the world's top 500 clients. Mr. Shen provides consultation for the management of several important business department and has been doing important business management work for a long time. Mr. Shen's service as customer contact involves mastering the actual needs of customers, organizing and coordinating lawyers and lawyer teams specialized in different areas, and solving various legal problems encountered by clients.

Mr. Shen is responsive, thoughtful and rigorous in his work. He can accurately and efficiently respond to various legal issues encountered by customers in production and operation. Mr. Shen has acquired abundant practical experience in dealing with the location of factories, investment conditions negotiation, plant construction, acquisition and renewal of various special certificates, merger and separation, equity acquisition, equity transfer, liquidation, relocation, customs, labor, taxation, internal compliance management, environmental compliance investigation and system construction, administrative punishment, dispute settlement, and other matters of various Sino-foreign joint ventures and foreign-owned factories. Mr. Shen has good command of the work flow and logic of various government departments and is especially skilled at negotiation and communication with government departments. His handling of special cases involving direct investment of enterprises, relocation (experienced in dealing with commercial business/land reduction/Industrial transformation/environmental violation of different types of relocation projects), government repurchase of land, the share transfer of state-owned joint-venture enterprise, and other matters has been highly rated by his clients.

Mr. Shen has organized the compilation of Legal Manual on Dealing with Business Disputes for Japanese-invested Enterprises in China, participated in multiple legislative and advisory activities for the Shanghai Municipal Government, and has held several lectures on designated topics. He is excellent at giving speeches, writing, and conducting various professional communications in Japanese.

Mr Shen's working languages are Chinese and Japanese.