

ZHANG Yujuan

Attorney at Law.

Ms. Zhang graduated from Swansea University with a LL.M degree and then obtained her Lawyer License in 2018 (License No.: 1310120*****04).

Ms. Zhang is an expert in the field of labor law and employee relocation, and also experienced in areas related to foreign investment, compliance, banking, etc. Some typical cases handled by Ms. Zhang include:

- Providing legal advices on labor protection and compliance for many companies; Drafting and revising internal regulations and rules for several companies; Participating in negotiations on behalf of many foreign-invested enterprises during their withdrawal and employee layoff; Participating in several labor dispute arbitration and litigation cases, to help companies legally handle their relations with employees, while protecting the companies' interests to the fullest extent.
- Participating in the investment, restructure and exit projects of foreign enterprises in China (related work covers due diligence, negotiation, governmental procedure handling, etc.); Participating in the investigation of embezzlement and commercial bribery of employees of foreign-invested enterprises; Applying for trademark registration, trademark renewal, trademark transfer on behalf of foreign enterprises.
- Routinely participating in handling various legal issues encountered by foreign-invested banks during their daily operation, assisting foreign-invested banks to draft and negotiate various transactions contracts, providing legal opinions, etc.

Ms. Zhang's working languages are Chinese and English.