

CHEN Yifu

Attorney at Law

Mr. Chen Yifu graduated from East China University of Political Science and Law, and majored in International Law. Mr. Chen Yifu passed the Bar Examination in 2014 with remarkable grades, joined LeeZhao Law Office in 2018, and has obtained Lawyer License (License No.: 131012061).

Mr. Chen Yifu is experienced in the general corporate legal issues covering all aspects from establishment, daily operation to the liquidation of a company, and is expert in the commercial dispute settlements (including litigation and arbitration). His typical cases are as follows:

- Participating in handling serial financial leasing contract dispute cases on behalf of a Japanese financial leasing company, which includes claims for rents, losses, financial leasing assets and etc.; Participating in handling several house leasing contract dispute cases on behalf of a large-scale Chinese private real estate enterprise; Participating in handling sales contract dispute cases on behalf of a Japanese enterprise, which covers the first and second trial and the compulsory enforcement period, and the first and second trial on the Third Party's Revocation Action initiated by the third party in this case.
- Participating in handling compulsory enforcement cases of a Japanese corporation against a BVI company (including but not limited to, supervising and enforcing the BVI company's properties in China, responding to the cancellation of arbitration awards/ refusal to enforce arbitration awards initiated by BVI company and etc.); Participating in handling foreign-related arbitration cases of a Japanese optics corporation against a foreign company in China at HKIAC; Participating in handling a bankruptcy reorganization case (including but not limited to, the declaration of bankruptcy claims, disputes over the confirmation of bankruptcy claims resulted from the declaration of bankruptcy claims).
- Participating in handling a Japanese enterprise's withdrawal from China through transfers of share, where legal services so provided include employee relocation, suppliers/customers handling, drafting and negotiation of agreements for the parties, fulfilling government formalities and etc.; Participating in handling the case where a Japanese enterprise was suspected of vertical monopoly agreements.

Mr. Chen Yifu's working languages are Chinese and English.