

Li Fan

Attorney at Law

Mr. Li Fan graduated from the Shanghai University of Finance and Economics with a LLM degree, joined LeeZhao Law Office in 2019, and has obtained Lawyer License (License No.: 131012059).

Mr. Li Fan is expert at handling corporate legal issues relating to corporate establishment, daily operation, equity transfer and project withdrawal, and have some experience in the areas of competition law and intellectual property law. His typical cases include:

- Providing contract review, legal risk assessment, scheme design and other daily legal services related to the daily operation of many companies (the fields cover financial leasing, medical treatment, software development and others); participating in the handling of a number of cases related to the enterprise establishment in China by overseas enterprises and business restructuring by means of equity transfer (related responsibilities include but are not limited to conducting due diligence, negotiation, document preparation, fulfilling government formalities, etc.).
- Providing legal support for companies in cases of intellectual property compliance and infringement and assisting in formulating legal solutions; participating in handling civil and administrative cases involving infringement upon trade secrets, advertising compliance, false publicity and reporting; participating in the handling of cases on declaring the concentration of undertakings in projects invested by foreign enterprises in China.
- Participating in handling lawsuits of equipment return and accounts receivable recovery for companies; participating in handling lawsuits of fraud in supplier sales contracts; participating in handling cases of infringement upon company's reputation and assisting companies in case reporting, mediation, issuing legal opinions, etc.

Mr. Li Fan's working languages are Chinese and English.