

DING Zhilong

Partner, Attorney at Law (License No.: 1310120*****41)

Mr. Ding graduated and received his Master Degree from Shanghai International Studies University, and furthered his studies in Japan with sponsorship.

Mr. Ding joined Leezhao Law Office in April, 2009 to work in law-related areas.

Mr. Ding is familiar with corporate law practice and is proficient in legal research. Mr. Ding has provided professional legal services for many multinational enterprises and foreign-invested enterprises etc., whose industries range from medicine, chemistry, architecture, automobile, environment, service, commerce, logistics, electronics, manufacture and finance etc. And his legal practice covers the establishment of company, change of registered information, M&A, withdrawal of investment, corporate compliance construction (commercial bribery, embezzlement, etc.), dealing with commercial bribery and administrative punishments, labor dispute, litigation, international transaction, product liabilities and intellectual properties etc.

Mr. Ding is specially experienced in company establishment, M&A, corporate compliance, dealing with administrative punishments, labor dispute, litigation. The cases that he has disposed are mainly as follows: M&A of large companies of papermaking, medicine, electronics, chemistry and new materials, dealing with commercial bribery and embezzlement investigation for a number of foreign companies, dealing with mass labor disputes, several AIC administrative punishment cases for foreign-invested companies etc.

During his sponsored studies in Japan, in addition to the Japanese language, Mr. Ding also further studied the Japanese social culture and became familiar with the history and cultural background of Japan. In Leezhao Law Office, Mr. Ding provides legal services for multiple Japanese companies with his proficiency in Japanese, and works diligently and responsibly, and adheres faithfully to the professional ethics.

Mr. Ding's working languages are Chinese and Japanese.