

SHA Jinyi

Attorney at Law

Mr. SHA is graduated from Fudan University with bachelor degree in law, and obtained the Lawyer License in 2006 (License No.:131012020).

Mr. SHA has been providing legal services for many multinational corporations and foreign invested enterprises, the industries of which cover light industry, chemical industry, electron and electronic appliance, machinery, commerce & trade, property construction, culture and media, etc., and the practice areas of which include investment/reorganization, liquidation and bankruptcy, demolition and relocation, corporation/business, international trade/import and export, construction/environmental protection, entertainment and media, etc.

Mr. SHA specializes in dealing with common legal issues arising from daily operation of corporations; and has provided legal services for several foreign invested enterprises in establishment, change, deregistration, relocation, liquidation, etc; and has provided legal services for several multinational corporations in the reorganization/M&A of their enterprises invested in China.

Mr. SHA's working languages are Chinese and English.